BISHOP GRAY

Bishop William Crane Gray, of Orlando and mission bishop of Southern Florida, officiated at Grace Episcopal church Sunday morning and preached to a highly appreciated sermon to a large audience. He made a splendid argument to show that everything was possible with God and put to flight the doubts of unbelieving man in the divinity of Christ as His son and the savior of the world. The large congregation heard him with pleasure and spiritual profit. Before he began his impressive discourse, he complimented the congregation on their neat and comfortable house of worship and on possessing so zealous and efficient a pastor as Rev. Harrison. At the close of the sermon the following persons were confirmed: Messrs. Gus Haley and Walter Yonge and Misses Hattie Dye, Margaret Anderson, Dorothy Lancaster and Eleanor Crom. At night the bishop officiated at a full house at St. James (colored) Episcopal church.

There was a muscle testing tournament in the Star composing room this morning that was worthy of being performed on the public square. There is in one corner of said room the discarded roller of a proof press, weighing at least 150 pounds. Revs. C. C. Carroll and Sam White, each a Boanerges in the pulpit, and physically as well as spiritually capable of pounding the devil all over a forty-acre lot, essayed each to see how many times he could raise said roller from the floor and over his head. The Baptist Sampson proved his faith by his works—he elevated the weight seventeen times. The Christian Hercules was also strong medicine—he raised the roller thirteen times, but the fourteenth was his unlucky number. It is just as well for the average man to avoid trouble with either of these orthodox Goliaths.
